Mr Shirajul Islam, owner of the Sipson Tandoori Restaurant in West Drayton is proud to announce that his restaurant is the recipient of the British Curry Award 2006. The British Curry Awards are the industry's 'Oscars'. Sipson Tandoori Restaurant has been officially recognised as being in the top 100 Indian Restaurant's in the United Kingdom.

The presentation took place at the Grosvenor House Hotel in London's Park Lane as was hosted by Alastair Stewart OBE on Sunday 17th September 2006. Amongst the guest were Rolf Harris, Keith Vaz M.P, James Whales and many other celebrities. The event was televised in the UK, and across the world.

Sipson Tandoori made it in the top 100 out of thousands of restaurants across the UK. It is the only restaurant in Heathrow and the surrounding area to be awarded. We would like to take this opportunity to thank our loyal customers for nominating our restaurant.

We are taking bookings for Christmas and the New Year and would suggest you book early to avoid disappointment. Sipson Tandoori is the largest Indian Restaurant in the area and is suitable for large parties.
